The number of financial assistantship will be subject to availability of funds, seats and approval by the competent authority.

Candidates holding a Bachelor's degree in Engineering, Architecture, or Planning with a minimum of 75% marks (or an equivalent CGPA), and possessing either a valid GATE score or having qualified the institute-level entrance examination, may be recommended by the Departmental Selection Committee (DSC) to the Senate Postgraduate Board (SPGB) for admission to the Ph.D. program. Admission shall be subject to an interview and will be considered under Full Time Institute Assistantship (for candidates with a valid GATE score) or Full Time Financial Assistantship (for candidates who qualify through the institute-level entrance examination).

The all other terms and conditions for the Ph.D. Admission shall remain same as resolved earlier except above. Accordingly, necessary changes may be made for publication of information brochure, as required.

2. The Senate resolved that in order to avoid any confusion and to bring clarity, the para 3 of Resolution No. Senate-58/2025/07 stated as:

"Further, the candidate selected based on the institute-level written examination and Interview may be allocated to Assistant Professors as supervisors. Additionally, it is mandatory to have a co-supervisor at the level of either an Associate Professor or a Professor. The number of financial assistantships will be subject to availability and approval by the competent authority."

Shall now be read as:

"Further, the candidate selected under full time category based on the institute-level written examination and Interview may be allocated to Assistant
